

Symptoms	Possible Vision Problems
Complains of blurred vision Rubs eyes frequently Squints	Nearsightedness Farsightedness Astigmatism (inability to see clearly in the distance or up close)
Closes or covers one eye Occasionally sees double Rubs eyes frequently Able to read for only a short time Poor reading comprehension	Eye coordination problems (inability to coordinate the eyes together effectively)
Holds things very close Complains of blurred vision Poor reading comprehension Says eyes are tired Able to read for only a short time Has headaches when reading	Eye focusing problems (inability to easily refocus eyes or maintain clear focus)
Moves head excessively when reading Frequently loses place, skips lines when reading Uses finger to keep place Poor reading comprehension Short attention span	Eye tracking problems (inadequate ability to smoothly and accurately move the eyes from one point to another)
Mistakes words with similar beginnings Difficulty recognizing letters, words, or simple shapes and forms Can't distinguish the main idea from insignificant details Trouble learning basic math concepts of size, magnitude, and position	Faulty visual form perception (inability to discriminate differences in size, shape, or form)
Trouble visualizing what is read- Poor reading comprehension Poor speller Trouble with mathematical concepts Poor recall of visually presented material	Faulty visual memory (inability to remember and understand what is seen)
Sloppy handwriting and drawing Can't stay on lines Poor copying skills Can respond orally but not in writing	Faulty visual motor integration (inability to process and reproduce visual images by writing or drawing)
Trouble learning right and left Reverses letters and words Trouble writing and remembering letters and numbers	Difficulty with laterality and directionality (Poor development of left/right awareness)